Lars Rolander of Sweden, put in our pokes in issue 4 on Kokotoni
Wilf but he is still having problems on the screen with the signpost

Apparently as you enter the screen the bird starts to move into the tunnel and you can't get past it no matter how many lives you've got.

Can anyone give a poke to rid Lars of this dreaded bird. Write to us or direct to Lars his address is, Box.1125, s-581

SPECTRUM ARCADE HANDBOOK

October

ISSUE 2

EDITORIAL

Welcome to issue 2 of the arcade handbook. It contains one or two new items which may be of interest, we certainly have tried to improve the content and style of our handbook. Our correspondence from our readers is growing steadily, but there are still many of you we have never heard from, so get entering the competitions or sound off about anything you want we'd love to hear from you.

FR&D DIARY

So Sinclair decides to launch his 128K machine in Espana hey, typical, by the time he puts it out here 48K owners will have plumped for something else, heaven forbid. I don't suppose his decision has anything to do with Dixons, who have large stocks of 48K's to clear this christmas. A pre-christmas launch would certainly not be a good idea as far as Dixon's are concerned, and so it appears Sinclair agree.

The great cheapo games dogfight continues as Firebird reduce their Silver range prices to £1.99 in line with Mastertronic. Their reason primarily is to secure their position in the budget software market which apparently now accounts for 20% of the software sales in the games market as a whole. A Mastertronic spokesman was unperturbed and stated that they out sell Firebird not only on an individual title basis but also in the number of titles available. One interesting fact to note is that both companies will produce a range of titles at a medium price range around £3 to £4. Firebird are to call theirs not surprisingly the Super Silver range, and Mastertronics as equally appropriate the Mad Range!

More magazines go bump and are changing hands. Your 64 has now been sold to Argus specialist publications and will be incorporated into Your Commodore from the November issue. Less fortunate are COmputing Today, Personal Computing TOday, MSX User, Digital and Micro EElectronics, Orchard Computing, Micro Choice, Personal Software and Software Today, who all go to the wall. Fortunately only 7 editorial staff were made redundant.

ISSUE 1 COMPETITION WINNERS

Congratulations to Neil Ure of Plymouth who wins this months £8 worth of software. Southern Belle is on its way to him.

TECHNICAL SPOT

LOADING PROBLEMS ON ISSUE 2 or 3 SPECTRUMS

We have had a number of readers who have had problems loading games on issue 2&3 Spectrum. A. Gledhill of Barnsley, has sent in a solution that may help. Check the Spectrum by entering 57342, if this gives you a 191 then try entering out 57342,255 and load the game as normal.

WANTED YOUR HINTS/POKES/MAPS

We are still giving £8 worth of software to the best hints/pokes maps received before our next publication date.

We are also giving away 2 Firebird Silver range tapes. Even if you send in just one hint and we use it you will become eligible for our draw where all contributions go into a hat and the one pulled out wins 2 tapes.

(please state which tapes you require along with your hints)

- Please ensure your hints meet the following conditions:-
- POKES - Always try to include all the associated information. Its impossible for us to test all the pokes we receive and don't forget that not everyone has the knowledge to know where to put the poke.
  - HINTS - Please write as clearly as possible so that we can print them correctly.
  - MAPS - Ensure the maps are no bigger than A4 size and they must be coded in black and white (if you wish a map returned please enclose stamped addressed envelope).

So what are you waiting for, start putting those tips together.

BACK ATTACK

This is where we take a general look at the business of hacking and try to give some help and direction to people who are interested in starting to hack into programs.

HOW DO YOU START

People expect to be able to read a list of instructions and then go on to hack into all their favorite games and come up with infinite lives etc.

If things were so simple. What you need is a knowledge of machine code. There are certainly one or two books about that subject around and even more importantly the knowledge to relate it to breaking into your Spectrum programs. Two recommended titles are 'Understanding your Spectrum' which helps you get started with machine code and the 'Complete Spectrum Rom Disassembly' which is more useful when you have attained a knowledge of machine code. Both are from Melbourne House and are well worth buying.

You need certain tools including a dis-assembler again there are a number about. You will also need a good header reader. Information on these items will be found in the books above. We can't go too far at this stage and if you are serious get yourself tooled-up. We will continue to help, hopeful hackers in the coming issues.

BASIC POKING INSTRUCTIONS

- STEP 1- Instead of load"" you type in merge" " (ENTER) merge = T in extended mode.
- STEP 2- Start your game tape.
- STEP 3- The tape should start loading as normal.
- STEP 4- When O.K. message appears on the screen immediately stop your tape.
- STEP 5- Type in LIST (enter) (list = press k).
- STEP 6- The header should now appear on your screen. You now either edit or retype in the line you wish to alter.

STEP 7- To enter the poke you need to find the line with the last, PRINT USR or RANDOMIZE USR staement. ie. if a line ends:-
 PAPER0: CLS: PRINT USR 31000 and you have 2 pokes to enter ie POKE 35100,255: 35170,0: place them into the line and the new end should be
 PAPER0: CLS: POKE 35100,255: POKE 35170,0: PRINT USR 31000
 STEP 8- When you are happy with the line (enter)
 STEP 9- The change should now go up into the header.
 STEP 10- Type RUN (enter) (run = press R)
 STEP 11- Then restart your game tape from where you stopped it.
 STEP 12- The game should now load with your pokes taking effect.

If it is a long header you can save the new header to a blank tape to save having to type in everytime you play the game. So at step 10 don't run it but save it. If you do this don't forget to play the game tape past its header. Put the new header in and carry on from step 10.

Before we leave you this month a new game called Hacker from Activision is due out on the Spectrum. We have seen the CBM version and it looks to be a good game. You're stuck in a communications network with no apparent way out. We'll keep you informed.

READERS' RECOMMENDATIONS

Damien Murphy of Ireland, recommends.

A machine program for breaking out of machine code (and basic) can be found in issue 1 of Your Spectrum - this is very good for hacking into games (if you have'nt a copy of this issue don't panic, we will supply a copy of the article to anyone who asks for it).

Eion Ryan of Ireland, recommends.

A computer tape deck called the Twillstar MC3810, which loads all his games first time without any problems. It is priced at £25.95

If you can recommend anything for home computer owners, let us know and we will print it in this column.

SPECTRUM SOUND

We all know that our Spectrum has'nt got very good sound but we know many people do not realise that there is a way to increase the sound output very easily. All you do is play the sound back through your cassette recorder. Leave your mic connected and disconnect the ear plug then make sure there is nothing in your cassette and press play. The sound will come through your cassette recorder and adjust the volume to suit. You will find this works on most games.

MODEM NEWS

Just under 600 new subscribers were added to Micronet during August with the now defunt Prisms modem riding high. The two year old VTX5000 accounted for 231 of the new subscribers. It seems as though Spectrum owners are turning to modems in large numbers.

Of the current machine ownership of Micronet 50% own the BBC, 30% Spectrum, and 4% Commodore.

MESSAGES

Trond Nylond, who owns a 48K Spectrum wants some pen friends. His address is:- Masevegen 14, N-8662 Halsey Ivefsen, NORWAY.

ALIEN 8

To see the final mind blowing effects!!! in this game enter the following and then lose all your lives, you'll be impressed! (the basic header below appeared in issue 4, we repeat it for those who have not seen it).

Put a blank tape in your cassette and start it recording then run the above program.

When its finished rewind the tape and reset your computer.

Now wind your Master Alien 8 tape past its first small block.

READERS FEEDBACK

This monthly column looks at any views our readers have on any current home computer issues that either please or anger them. We start with our star letter which wins a free issue subscription to one of our handbooks.

Mr. P. Harrison of Worcester writes:-

I own both a Spectrum 48K and a Commodore 64, and as such get magazines for both machines. I count myself very lucky to have the best of both worlds and I think both machines are perfect for game players. I laugh at the childish attitude of the respective computer owners, its obvious that the Jones aspect i.e. my machine is better than yours is just natural competitiveness but when you see best selling magazines ripping into each others machines, its quite pathetic. Zzap was a main culprit earlier on as it seriously did try to put down the Spectrum computer in nearly every issue and took delight in printing letters saying the CBM was far superior to the speccy. I wrote to Zzap and also it appears did many others as they did state in their mag that they would tone down the criticism, and they appear to have stuck to their word. It just shows the mentality of the industry when it allows things like this to happen.

Just look at the recent Crash Sinclair User battle which could go to court. I am aged 16 and cannot understand how supposedly adult writers and editors can go in for the libelous sort of journalism that Crash wrote about Sinclair User. I hope Crash get sued it will serve them right.

H & D COMMENT

Well P. Harrison, you've certainly aired some angry views and in the main we do echo most of the sentiment. Obviously being involved with Amstrad, BBC, Commodore and Spectrum, we try not to show a bias as each user enjoys his own machine. As far as your last point we believe Crash did perhaps go a little far in retrospect although we did have a giggle at our issue of Crash that had the said article in. A magazine like Crash should be able to air its view in a more adult way and ensure they keep giving its own readers good value for money. Lets face it a large percentage of Spectrum magazine buyers will always buy both Crash and Sinclair User.

David Hay of Manchester. wrote to say:

It should be pointed out to readers that because some pokes don't work, it is not always that the poke is incorrect. Many software houses are now issuing different versions of their games to combat hacking.

I think this is a very childish attitude as in my opinion hacking increases the sales of certain games and certainly does no harm. Vortex I believe are changing the code in Highway Encounter every 1000 issues.

H & D COMMENT

To go through Davids points, we do accept that some pokes do fail to work due to printing errors on our part and we will always endeavour to check as much as we can. But we also agree that there can also be different versions of the same game, take "wanted monty mole" as an example, these cases were small however. The worrying thing for us is that David is quite right with his statement about Vortex who are changing the code every 1000 issues. It continues the trend of program protection that is now growing in the software industry to combat piracy. The only problem is, is that it also backfires on the legitimate hackers and game players many thousands strong who now take pride in getting infinite lives, pokes, etc on the new games. We know that software houses have a right to protect their programs and sell as many as possible, but the plain facts are that a few months ago one of the leading software houses carried out a test whereby it proved that whether a program had protection or not in no way did it affect sales or the pirating of a program(s). In the meantime we have to hope Vortex's stand is not copied by other leading software houses.

Why not try to win yourself a free subscription. Air any views you have to us here and we will put them into print.

HYPER SPORTS

SWIMMING
 To break records and get a good start on your opponents, don't wait for the gun to fire. As soon as the man gets ready to dive the time is always the same before the gun goes off so wait for a split second then start waggling you will soon be able to time it perfectly so that you're off as the gun goes and by the 10m mark you'll already be in front. Don't worry about making false starts while you get the timing right.

SKEET SHOOTING

If you find it difficult mastering the two sights then concentrate solely on one of them and accurate firing should get you through even though you may miss one or two. Always ensure you hit the one large skeet as it is worth 5 times the smaller ones. If you have shot well a duck will fly across the screen so always be on your toes if you have hit everything and shoot as soon as the duck appears to get a perfect score.

LONG HORSE

Always get as near to the end of the springboard as you can and always time it so your flipping of the horse as you reach a full handstand. For distance wiggle the joystick like mad and always make sure you prepare for your landing in good time by one or two knocks on your joystick to straighten up.

ARCHERY

The wind speed does play an important part in this and always take account of this, use your first attempt to practice firing at different times and make use of the head on target in the right hand corner as a marker, so say when your targets middle passes the edge of fire, this is useful in the strongest southerly wind situation. As suggested on the inlay, if your timing is correct an angle between 4.8° and 5.2° will get you 400's and nice shots at 600.

TRIPLE JUMP

Fairly easy to qualify, concentrate on getting your speed up and then as the jump line appears the speed freezes and you can concentrate on getting as near to the line as possible before you jump angles between 40° and 50° on each leg of the jump should give you enough to qualify.

WEIGHT LIFTING

Probably the hardest event but steadily build up the power no thrashing of a joystick as you won't be able to keep it up. Then when you've enough power press the fire and hammer your joystick furiously until hopefully you get your 3 lights. (if Daley Thompsons decathlon breaks a few joysticks, I hate to think what this game will do).

JACK AND THE BEANSTALK

THE POKE

SPACE

When in space explore until you get to 'beam me down scottie', and here we go onto the left platform at the top of the screen. Right platform beams you back to the Bathroom.

There were certain problems with last months pokes for the above and we have a corrected first version which we had working but which failed to work on someone elses machine.

Anyway our thanks to Mike Williams of Cleveland for his correction.

MAGAZINE WATCH

We introduce a new item this issue that takes an unbiased view of some of our big brothers in the computer magazine world. We will go through an issue of a magazine and categorize its content into various classifications each with their own critical look see.

This time we have gone for the new look October COmputer and Video games and as it is a general magazine we will state what we believe its usefulness to each of our four main computer users Amstrad, BBC, Commodore and SPECTRUM.

COMPUTER AND VIDEO GAMES OCTOBER 1985 PRICES 95p

C AND VG is published by EMAP and comes from the same stable as Sinclair User and Commodore User.

Its ABC publication figures from July to December 1984 was - 95,247. They have'tn't been quick to publish their January to June 1985 figures, but there's no doubt that they are losing sales to the two successful game review mags, Crash and Zzap, hence this new look magazine which attempts to redress the balance.

But how successful is it? The magazine contains 124 pages which are broken down into the major categories below.

ADVERTISING (62 PAGES) In the main most adverts are for games, many of which are not widely available at the time of publication. 45 of which may be of interest to CBM owners. 39 of which may be of interest to AMSTRAD owners. 45 of which may be of interest to SPECTRUM owners. 21 of which may be of interest to BBC owners.

THIS ISSUE/NEXT ISSUE (2 PAGES) A summary of whats in this and whats coming in the next issue.

NEWS ITEMS (3 PAGES) Mostly news of the new games on all four machines.

COMPETITIONS (4 PAGES) Your chance to play M.U.D. - You must already own a Modem to enter.

Your chance to win the soon to be released Lord of the Rings adventure open to all four of our computer users. Your chance to win Summer Games II CBM owners only.

ARCADE GAMES REVIEW (7 PAGES)

25 games covered CBM 11 games applicable.
AMS 4 games applicable.
SP 7 games applicable.

Reviews also covered the Atari and Q.L.

Contains 1 page of news on the finding of the Pimania Sundial.
Contains 4 pages of game reviews covering 6 games and 2 books.
CBM 4 games applicable.
AMS 3 games applicable.
SP 4 games applicable.
BBC 3 games applicable.

Plus one adventure which did not say what machine it ran on.
Contains 2 pages with a help-line plus clues on 14 games.

PLAYING HINTS (2 PAGES)

Covered hints on 9 games 8 hints and pokes applicable to the Commodore. 2 applicable to the Spectrum. 2 applicable to the Amstrad and nothing for the BBC.

CONCLUSION

The bad news has to be that there is now also a new Amstrad magazine called Amstrad Action which like Crash and Zzap, reviews new games. This gives C and VG another headache, and Im afraid that looking at this new style magazine I wasn't greatly impressed. There must be question marks about such a general magazine as this, you only have to think back to the demise of the once successful Personal Computer Games to realise how shaky things can get. On this showing and with the rise of Zzap and Crash and new Amstrad Action things look rough for C and VG and there is certainly room for improvement. We will keep a close look in the future on its progress.

H&P GOES METROTEL

Paul Benhaim from London, one of our Commodore readers: asked for the following to be printed.

Metrotel is a fun database for modem users using 1200/75 Baud standard, and can be accessed on 01-941-4285, and will very soon have its own H&P section via Netflash (PG 700099). This is nothing to do with this mag, except some pokes are taken from it, for more information go to page 70295 to contact me, Mugsy about it.

Paul informs us that the database can be used by all computers and the H&P section should be accessible by the middle or end of October.

SWOP SHOP

R. Shirley of 33, The Street, Upchurch, Kent ME9 7EU. Has surplus hardware, games and magazines for sale. Send a stamped addressed envelope for details to the above address.

If you have anything to swop let us know what it is and what you would like in return and we will do our best to satisfy your request.

KNIGHTS

An easy way of finding out whether there are any hidden objects in the room, is to drop an object. If you can only drop one then there must be another object in the room as you are only allowed to drop 2 objects per room.

KOKONONI WIFE

The six time zones are:-

1. 1,000,000 BC
2. 1,066 AD
3. 1,467 AD
4. 1,784 AD
5. 1,984 AD
6. 2,001 AD

MOON CRESTA

Once all three ships have been joined together you have the power equivalent to 5 lasers and can amass a lot of points. Unfortunately this only lasts for a few sheets.

MUTANT MONTY

First the good news the Mutant Monty pokes in issue 5, of Hints and Pokes (what do you mean you have't got it, where have you been) worked on the first twenty screens.

Now the bad news the game contains forty screens. Some clever dick reader pointed this out and we all know it was our deliberate mistake to see if you were concentrating. Anyway apparently after screen 20 you revert back to having only 5 lives.

The same reader did though give pokes to remedy the problem (I told you he was a clever dick).

POKE 54800,0:POKE 54867,0:POKE 54893,0:POKE 55321,0

You also . . .

POKE 54933,255:POKE 55663,255:POKE 56133,255

Seriously, our thanks go to David Hay of Manchester for supplying this alteration.

NIGHTSHADE

We printed a poke last issue that protected you from the minor nasties. This poke does the same thing but is quicker.

Merge the tape as usual, and when OK appears stop the tape.

Type list this will show the header as line 0, to edit this you will have to change it to line 1. so enter.

POKE 23756,1

Then list again and voila it should now read line 1. And then go into edit mode. Move the cursor along to just in front of the final print USR statement and enter:-

POKE 53442,0:POKE 53443,12:

This should now be in line 1. Type and enter run, and start the tape again.

GENERAL HINTS

MINOR NASTIES

These can be killed with the antibodies you find lying about the buildings. WARNING Some minor nasties won't be killed straight away.

MAIN NASTIES

There are 4 main nasties, The Monk, Skeleton, Ghost and the Grim Reaper. These are the main characters and your job is to finish them off. These characters move more slowly than the others and so are easy to avoid but a touch means instant loss of life. To combat these there are 4 weapons hidden in Nightshade village. A Bible, Hammer Cross, Egg Timer. Each kills a specific nasty.

The Monk = The Cross

The Skeleton = The Hammer

The Ghost = The Bible

The Grim Reaper = The Egg Timer

One other give away is that the weapons flash if you're in the vicinity of their victim.

If by accident you shoot a weapon don't panic walk in a straight line in the same direction and you will come to it. So that you can pick it up again.

USEFUL ITEMS

There are 2 main items that you can pick up on you wanderings. The potions bring you back to full strength and the static items that look like a giant spider enable you to walk faster for a short time.

NODES OF YESOD

To collect a mole, you must first wait at the craters on the moon surface. The mole will eventually pop out. This mole will cut through walls and shafts and caverns to reveal new locations.

PHEENIX

One of our readers was after pokes on this game and David Hay of Manchester sent in the following, he said its a bit long winded but its the only way he knows.

Type and enter.

10 LOAD "" CODE 40000

15 LOAD "" CODE 44576

Run this and play original tape and when OK message appears immediately stop the tape.

Type and enter.

POKE 49419,0

And then save to blank tape with the following.

10 SAVE "PHEENIX" CODE 40000,550

15 POKE 23736,181

20 SAVE "P2" CODE 44576,7890

To play the game enter.

LOAD "" CODE 23552 and play in the tape you have just saved and then the remaining parts of the original tape. You should now have infinite lives.

POWY. RIDGEON

For extra points drop rocks on passing cars.

PYRAMID

Merge the tape and stop when OK message appears, enter before RANDOMIZE USR statement.

POKE 44685,0 (for limitless energy)

RATD. OVER MOSCOW

SCREEN 1

SCREEN 3

SCREEN 4

You have to hit 8 towers, 6 of which are in line with the attacking soldiers. Hit the lot to progress.

SCREEN 5

Watch the robots moves closely (he always moves right) after a couple of attempts you will be able to predict his movements and destroying it will be easier.

ROCKY HORROR SHOW

Press the switch that says 'do not press' and nothing will happen (great!) press it again and you will be transported to the room with the balcony and the stairs. Using this method it is quicker to transfer pieces of the de-medusa.

TRAVELS WITH TRASHMAN

One of the best routes around the world.
LONDON-PARIS-MADRID-MUNICH-MOSCOW-JERUSALEM-BENARES-HONG KONG-ALICE-SPRINGS-SAMOA-CHICHEN-ITZA-NEW ORLEANS-KENYA-SAO PAULO.

In the end the words 'time machine found in Sao Paulo' appear.

GENERAL HINTS

Try to keep away from the people on the screen as hitting them will make your money disappear quickly.

Also the cheapest option is not always the best i.e. there is more money to be made in Madrid than in Munich, if you can avoid the bull that is.

TURMOTIL

Never bother to take the tools back to the shed as this only wastes time and you have more chance of being killed.

A good way of gaining more points is to fill your can with oil and swing on the ropes, dropping oil on the crabs as you do so.

Mike Williams of Cleveland, who sent in the above thoroughly recommends this game.

WIZARDS WARRIORS

Get to the corner of the screen, and stand with your back against the wall. Now fire continuously and you will become almost invincible.

WORM ATTACK

THE POKE

For infinite lives POKE 38271,0

WANTED MONTY MOLE

HOW TO COLLECT THE OBJECTS ON THE FIFTEENTH SCREEN (THATS IF YOU'VE GOT THAT FAR)

On the pipes there is a mark running horizontal, climb up to the fourth one and jump for the object. This should prevent you from dropping to your death.

THE WAY OF THE EXPLODING FIST

When the game starts, you should walk forwards a little and then crouch down, when your opponent is in range do a low punch. This will work on most levels and you may need a flying kick first. In this way its quite easy to reach 10th Dan.
